Apostolic Trip of the Holy Father Francis to Chile and Peru (15-22 January 2018) – Departure from Rome and Telegrams to Heads of State

Departure from Rome and Telegrams to Heads of State

Welcome Ceremony at Santiago International Airport

Departure from Rome and Telegrams to Heads of State

This morning the Holy Father began his 22nd international Apostolic Trip, this time to Chile and Peru.

Before leaving the Casa Santa Marta, Pope Francis greeted the parents and grandmother of a Roman girl fatally hit by a vehicle near her own home, four days after her eighteenth birthday, accompanied by H.E. Msgr. Konrad Krajewski, Almoner of His Holiness.

The aircraft carrying the Holy Father (an Alitalia B777) took off from Rome-Fiumicino International Airport at 8.55, and landed at Santiago International Airport, Chile, at 19.15 local time (23.15 in Rome).

At the moment of take-off, Pope Francis sent telegrams to the Heads of State over through whose airspace he passed.

During the flight, the Holy Father wished to give to the journalists on the papal flight the image of a child carrying his dead infant brother on his back following the atomic bombing of Nagasaki in 1945.

Telegrams to Heads of State

At the moment of leaving Italian territory, commencing flight from Rome to Chile and Peru and passing over France, Spain, Morocco, Cape Verde, Senegal, Brazil, Paraguay and finally Argentina before reaching Santiago, the Holy Father Francis sent to the respective Heads of States the following telegrams:

Welcome Ceremony at Santiago International Airport

Upon arrival the Holy Father Francis was received by the President of the Republic of Chile Michelle Bachelet Jeria, by the President of the Senate Andrés Zaldívar, the President of the Chamber of Deputies Fidel Espinoza, the President of the Supreme Court Haroldo Brito, the Minister for Foreign Affairs Heraldo Muñoz and the Ambassador of Chile to the Holy See Mariano Fernández. In addition, the archbishop of Santiago H.E. Msgr. Ricardo Ezzati Andrello, S.D.B., and the President of the Episcopal Conference of Chile H.E. Msgr. Santiago Silva Retamales, were also present.

After a floral tribute given by two children in traditional dress, military honours and the presentation of the delegations, the Pope transferred by car to the apostolic nunciature of Santiago.

Before arriving at the nunciature, Pope Francis paused briefly at the San Luis Beltrán parish in Pudahuel, to pray at the tomb of Msgr. Enrique Alvear Urrutia, known as the “bishop of the poor”.
