The Holy Father has appointed

Appointment of bishop of Teramo-Atri, Italy

The Holy Father has appointed as bishop of Teramo-Atri, Italy, H.E. Msgr. Lorenzo Leuzzi, transferring him from the titular see of Cittanova and from the office of the auxiliary bishop of Rome.

H.E. Msgr. Lorenzo Leuzzi

H.E. Msgr. Lorenzo Leuzzi was born in Trani, province of Bari, and archdiocese of Trani-Barletta-Bisceglie, on 25 September 1955. After his studies at the classical lyceum he entered the Seminary and, attending the Theological Studium of Bari, obtained a bachelor's degree in theology (1979), then completing his formation in the priesthood at the Pontifical Major Roman Seminary. He graduated in Medicine and Surgery at the University of Bari (1980), specializing in medico-legal and insurance studies at the Catholic University of Rome (1983). He obtained a licentiate in canon law at the Pontifical Lateran University (1983), and a doctorate in moral theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University (1985).

He was ordained a priest for the diocese of Rome on 2 June 1984 by Cardinal Ugo Poletti in the Cathedral of Trani. He has held the following offices: ecclesiastical assistant at the University of the Sacred Heart in Rome; pastoral officer for universities of the diocese of Rome; director of the Marian Congregation of Mary Immaculate and of the School of Religion of San Filippo Neri all'Esquilino; rector of the Church of San Filippo Neri all'Esquilino; director of the University Pastoral Office of the Vicariate of Rome; member of the Commission of Catholic Education, School and University of the Episcopal Conference of Lazio; rector of the Church of San Gregorio Nazianzeno a Montecitorio and chaplain of the Chamber of Deputies of the Italian Parliament. In 1993 he was named chaplain of His Holiness.

He was elected as titular bishop of Cittanova and auxiliary of Rome on 31 January 2012, and received episcopal consecration the following 14 April. As auxiliary bishop of Rome he is delegate for the pastoral care of university and culture, and chaplain of the Chamber of Deputies of the Italian Republic.

Within the Italian Episcopal Conference he is member of the Episcopal Commission for Catholic Education, School and University, as well as member of the Advisory Board of the Vatican Publishing House.

Msgr. Leuzzi is the author of several publications of a cultural and theological-pastoral nature.
