Resignation of the bishop of Kotor, Montenegro, and appointment of apostolic administrator

The Holy Father has accepted the resignation from the pastoral care of the diocese of Kotor, Montenegro, presented by Bishop Ilija Janjić.

The Holy Father has appointed Archbishop Rrok Gjonlleshaj of Bar, Montenegro, as apostolic administrator sede vacante of the diocese of Kotor.

Elevation of the ecclesiastical province of Toluca, Mexico, to a metropolitan Church and appointment of the first metropolitan archbishop

The Holy Father has erected the ecclesiastical province of Toluca, Mexico, elevating the diocese of Toluca to a metropolitan Church and assigning it as suffragans the dioceses of Atlacomulco, Tenancingo and Cuernavaca, currently belonging to the ecclesiastical province of México.

The Holy Father has appointed Bishop Francisco Javier Chavolla Ramos of Toluca as first metropolitan archbishop of Toluca, Mexico.

Bishop Francisco Javier Chavolla Ramos

Francisco Javier Chavolla Ramos was born in Autlán on 3 June 1946. He entered the minor seminary of the diocese of Tijuana, where he attended secondary school and then courses in philosophy. He completed his theological studies at the Pontifical Seminary of Montezuma in the United States.

He was ordained to the priesthood on 10 December 1972, and incardinated in the diocese of Tijuana.

As a priest he exercised his pastoral ministry as co-operator vicar and parish priest in various parishes. In 1978 he was appointed as spiritual director of the major seminary in Tijuana, an office he held until his episcopal appointment.

He was appointed as bishop of Matamoros on 1 June 1991, receiving episcopal ordination on the following 16 July. He was transferred to the diocese of Toluca on 27 December 2003.

Erection of dioceses in Mexico

Erection of the diocese of Azcapotzalco

Erection of the diocese of Iztapalapa

Erection of the diocese of Xochimilco

The Holy Father has erected the diocese of Azcapotzalco, Mexico, with territory taken from the archdiocese of México, making it a suffragan of the same metropolitan Church of México.

The Holy Father has appointed as first bishop of Azcapotzalco, Mexico, Bishop Adolfo Miguel Castaño, currently titular of Vadesi and auxiliary of the archdiocese of México.

Bishop Adolfo Miguel Castaño

Adolfo Miguel Castaño was born in San Mateo Mozoquilpan, diocese of Toluca, on 27 September 1962. He studied at the seminary of Toluca and was ordained a priest on 19 March 1987. He obtained a licentiate in Sacred Scripture from the Pontifical University of Mexico and a doctorate in biblical theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome.

He was professor at the Pontifical University of Mexico and prefect of studies at the seminary of Toluca. He has published several books on biblical themes.

On 22 June 2010 he was appointed as titular bishop of Vadesi and auxiliary of the archdiocese of México. He received episcopal consecration on the following 30 July.

Within the Mexican Episcopal Conference he is currently head of the Biblical Pastoral Dimension.

The Holy Father has erected the diocese of Iztapalapa, Mexico, with territory taken from the archdiocese of México, making it a suffragan of the same metropolitan Church of México.

The Holy Father has appointed as first bishop of Izatapalapa, Mexico, Bishop Jesús Antonio Lerma Nolasco, currently titular of Aulona and auxiliary of the archdiocese of México.

Bishop Jesús Antonio Lerma Nolasco

Bishop Lerna Nolasco was born in Xalisco, diocese of Tepic, on 4 July 1945.

He was ordained a priest on 24 December 1971 and incardinated in the diocese of Tepic.

He has served as parish vicar, episcopal vicar and vicar for diocesan pastoral care, director of the magazine "Pescador" and vicar general.

On 7 May 2009 he was appointed as titular bishop of Aulona and auxiliary of Mexico. He received episcopal consecration on the following 10 July.

During these 10 years Bishop Lerma Nolasco has exercised his ministry in Vicariate VII, whose territory corresponds to that of the new diocese of Izatapalapa.

The Holy Father has erected the diocese of Xochimilco, Mexico, with territory taken from the archdiocese of México, making it a suffragan of the same metropolitan Church of México.

The Holy Father has appointed as first bishop of Xochimilco, Mexico, Bishop Andrés Vargas Peña, titular of Utimmira and auxiliary of the archdiocese of Mexico.

Bishop Andrés Vargas Peña

Bishop Vargas Peña was born in Villa de la Paz, archdiocese of San Luis Potosí, on 6 December 1946. He was ordained a priest on 12 October 1973 and incardinated in the archdiocese of San Luis Potosí. He obtained a licentiate in philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University of Rome.

He has served as professor and spiritual director of the major seminary of San Luis Potosí, parish priest, episcopal vicar for pastoral ministry, director of the archdiocesan School of Theology for the Laity, member of the college of consultors, member of the presbyteral council and assistant for the ongoing formation of priests ordained in recent years.

On 22 June 2010 he was appointed as titular bishop of Utimmira and auxiliary of México and was consecrated on the following 30 July.

From the beginning of his episcopal ministry he was in charge of the Vicariate VIII, which coincides with the territory of the future diocese of Xochimilco.

The ecclesiastical province of México, after restructuring, will have as suffragans the new dioceses of Azcapotzalco, Iztapalapa and Xochimilco
