Appointment of bishop of Djougou, Benin

Appointment of bishop of Porto-Santa Rufina, Italy, and union in persona Episcopi of the dioceses of Civitavecchia-Tarquinia and Porto-Santa Rufina

The Holy Father has appointed Bishop Gianrico Ruzza of Civitavecchia-Tarquinia and until now apostolic administrator of Porto-Santa Rufina as bishop of the suburbicane diocese of Porto-Santa Rufina, Italy, uniting the two dioceses in persona Episcopi.

Curriculum vitae

Bishop Gianrico Ruzza was born on 14 February 1963 in Lugnano in Teverina, diocese and province of Rome. He carried out his studies at the Pontifical Roman Major Seminary, and was ordained a priest in May 1987 for the diocese of Rome.

After ordination he was awarded a licentiate in canon law from the Pontifical Gregorian University. He has served as assistant and vice-rector of the Pontifical Roman Major Seminary, rector of Santa Cecilia in Trastevere and of San Lorenzo de' Speziali in Miranda; parish administrator of San Pio X and parish priest of San Roberto Bellarmino. In addition, he has been director of the Clergy Office of the Vicariate, ecclesiastical assistant of the Salvatorian Academic Apostolate, secretary of the diocesan pastoral council, prefect of the Sixth Prefecture, president of the Interdiocesan Institute for the Support of the Clergy of the dioceses of Rome and Ostia, and member of the College of Consultors.

He was appointed as titular bishop of Subaugusta on 8 April 2016, and received episcopal ordination on the following 11 June. He has exercised his episcopal ministry in Rome as auxiliary bishop for the Centre Sector (2016-2019) and holding the office of prelate secretary of the Vicariate of Rome (2017-2019). From 2019 to 2021 he was auxiliary bishop of Rome for the South Sector. On 18 June 2020 he was appointed as bishop of Civitavecchia-Tarquiniia and on 5 May, apostolic administrator of Porto-Santa Rufina.

Within the Italian Episcopal Conference he is member of the Episcopal Commission for social and labour issues, justice and peace, and the Scientific and Organizing Committee of the Social Weeks of Italian Catholics.
