Declaration of the Director of the Holy See Press Office, Matteo Bruni

On March 28 and 31, Pope Francis will meet individually with delegations of Canadian indigenous peoples, accompanied by their Bishops, to listen to their testimonies. On April 1, an Audience will take place in the Clementine Hall of the Apostolic Palace, with the joint participation of the various delegations and the Canadian Bishops' Conference, during which the Pope will have the opportunity to address them.
