Ash Wednesday 2022

Dear brother in Christ,

On Palm Sunday 2021, the Holy Father used very strong words to speak of the Passion of the Lord: “This amazes us: to see the Almighty reduced to nothing ... to see the God of the universe stripped of everything ... Why, Lord, did you wish to endure all this? Jesus did it for us, to plumb the depths of our human experience, our entire existence, all our evil. To draw near to us and not abandon us in our suffering and our death. .... By experiencing in the flesh our deepest struggles and conflicts, he redeemed and transformed them” (Pope Francis, Homily, 28 March 2021).

Pope Francis in 2021 made two pilgrimages of hope amidst the Christian communities of the Middle East and the Holy Land. Hoping against all hope, while the whole world was still in the throes of the pandemic, he wanted to reach some of the most lonely and suffering: our brothers and sisters in Iraq, land of Abraham, land of exile, land that knew how to keep the name of Christ despite the violence of war and persecution. Alongside him with prayer and affection, we too walked the streets of Mosul and Qaraqosh, we stopped in prayer in the Syrian Catholic Cathedral of Baghdad in memory of the witnesses killed on 31 October 2010 while they were celebrating the Liturgy, which the East loves to define as “heaven on earth”. That day the earth was tinged with blood and rubble, yet as believers, we recognize that the Easter light of the Passion and Resurrection was released, spreading the balm and perfume of those who follow the immolated Lamb with the gift of their life. In Cyprus too and then in Greece, lands of apostolic preaching, the Pope faced the suffering of division: of a land, of peoples, of believers in Christ who still cannot share the same table of the Eucharist, of those that many have come seeking refuge and welcome. There was no lack of other appeals, gestures and invitations to peace for other lands that the history of salvation and biblical events invite us to understand as “Holy Land”.

Faced with these gestures of the Holy Father which testify to the desire for closeness, for encounter, to bring at least a little relief as if it were the caress of the Nazarene, we must have the courage – as individuals and Christian communities – to ask ourselves: what do I see, what do I notice? What is the perimeter of my gaze? In the Easter towards which the Lenten journey that we have started today leads us, will I allow the Lord to visit my solitude and ours? And to the Love who will come to visit me will I be able to respond with love? Love cannot be repaid except with love!

If, in personal terms, Christ has suffered and died only once and cannot die anymore, in his Body, which is the Church, He continues to suffer, especially in the Middle East, but also in every other place in the world where the freedom to live the faith is trampled and prevented: from persecution in many cases, from the hostile environment at times, often from the globalization of indifference, from the violence of wars with which humanity unfortunately never seems to be satisfied, as happens in Ukraine.

For two consecutive years, the Christians of the Holy Land have celebrated Easter and Christmas in a sort of isolation, without the warmth and solidarity of pilgrims visiting the Holy Places and local communities. Families have suffered beyond measure, more from the lack of work than from the immediate effects of the pandemic itself.

It is by the express wish of the Popes that the Collection “Pro Terra Sancta” was begun and continues to be taken up, usually on the day of the saving Passion of the Lord, Good Friday. It is not something ancient or outdated, because it expresses above all our awareness of being rooted in the proclamation of redemption, which spread from Jerusalem and reached us all. The gesture of offering, even a small one, but by everyone, like the widow’s mite, allows our brothers and sisters to continue to live, to hope and to offer a living witness to the Word made flesh in places and on the streets that saw his presence. If we lose our roots, how can we be, wherever we are in the world, a tree that grows and bears fruits of love, charity and sharing?

Looking therefore at Christ who touched our human reality to its depths, letting ourselves be inspired by the gestures of closeness made by Pope Francis in his Apostolic Journeys and accepting his invitation to live solidarity with our brothers and sisters of the Holy Land, let us give new vigour to the practice of the Collection for the Holy Land. Through the competent Diocesan Offices and thanks to the presence and work all over the world of the Franciscan Commissaries of the Holy Land of the Order of Friars Minor, let us also take care of the preparation for it, through testimonies, prayers or the simple celebration of the Via Crucis. In Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Nazareth, and in many other shrines and monasteries, prayer is offered for the Church all over the world, and we are invited to remember with the heart and with a small gift all those who pronounce our name before the Lord, giving thanks for our generosity. The information material distributed every year helps us to see the flow of charity and life made possible thanks to the Collection.

To you, to the priests, to the consecrated men and women, and to the faithful who strive for the success of the Collection, in a labour to which the Church calls all her children in various well-known ways, I have the joy of transmitting the deep gratitude of the Holy Father, Pope Francis. As I invoke abundant divine blessings on the community entrusted to you, I offer most fraternal greetings in the Lord Jesus.

Sincerely

* Leonardo Card. Sandri

The “Pro Terra Sancta” Collection

CONGREGATION FOR THE EASTERN CHURCHES

2021 A.D.

Introduction

The Collection “Pro Terra Sancta” was born from the desire of the Popes to maintain a strong link between all the faithful and the Holy Places. It is the main source of material support for Christian life in the Holy Land and the privileged instrument that the Church provides her children in other parts of the world to express solidarity with the ecclesial communities of the Middle East. In recent times, Saint Paul VI gave a decisive boost in favour of the Holy Land through the Apostolic Exhortation ‘Nobis in Animo’ (March 25, 1974).

Through the funds traditionally collected on Good Friday, the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land is able to carry out the important mission to which it is called: preserving the Sacred Places, the stones of memory, and promoting the Christian presence, the living stones, through many pastoral, educational, welfare, health and social structures.

The territories that benefit in various forms of support from the Collection are Jerusalem, Palestine, Israel, Jordan, Cyprus, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Ethiopia, Eritrea, Turkey, Iran and Iraq.

As a rule, the Custody of the Holy Land receives 65% of the Collection, while the remaining 35% goes to the Congregation for the Eastern Churches, which uses it for the formation of candidates for the priesthood, the support of the clergy, educational activities, cultural formation and subsidies to the various ecclesiastical circumscriptions in the Middle East.

This report is a synthesis of what the Congregation received in 2021 and how it was distributed.

Academic, Spiritual and Human Formation of the Seminarians and Priests of the Churches under the Jurisdiction of the Congregation for the Eastern Churches

Thanks to the Collection, contributions can be made to seminaries, religious houses of formation and cultural institutions in the territories of competence and in Rome, supporting in various forms (scholarships, university fees and health needs) young seminarians and priests, men and women religious and, depending on the funds available, and some lay people. About 223 students benefiting from scholarships reside in 7 colleges under the jurisdiction of the Dicastery in Rome.

In addition, the Dicastery contributes to the sustenance of the Pontifical Oriental Institute, a higher academic institution with two faculties, Eastern Ecclesiastical Sciences and Eastern Canon Law, of which the Cardinal Prefect is Grand Chancellor.

Extraordinary subsidies for the Committee for Cultural Collaboration (PCUC)	US$ 50.000,00

Subsidies for Educational Activities

The Patriarchal Diocese of Jerusalem, the Franciscan Custody, the Eastern Churches of the Holy Land and Religious Institutes are committed to the education of young people in the Holy Land. Keeping in mind the particular circumstances faced by Christian students and taking into account the arrival into the Holy Land of thousands of school-aged children from Syria and Iraq, the Congregation for the Eastern Churches has decided not to reduce the subsidies also for the current academic year.

The work of the Secretariat of Solidarity in the coordination and distribution of subsidies to educational institutions managed by the aforementioned institutions is also noteworthy.

One of the prestigious foundations that ensures academic formation is Bethlehem University. Almost 3,300 young people, mostly Palestinian Muslims, are trained intellectually and humanly with the hope of engaging in the construction of a country where mutual respect reigns and where human dignity is preserved. The commitment of the De La Salle Brothers in running the university is much appreciated.

Total	US$ 2.945.000,00

Ordinary and Extraordinary Subsidies

This Congregation contributes to supporting the Churches placed under its competence with subsidies drawn from the Holy Land Collection.

The Middle East continues to live in instability and tension. There are people who have no food, others who lack medical treatment, children and youth without schools, and then those orphaned, wounded and widowed by war. The Congregation pays particular attention to the needs of these people and works to rebuild social structures through the local Eastern and Latin Dioceses, as well as by soliciting the Catholic agencies involved in the aforementioned countries. Ensuring the means necessary for a dignified life for those returning to Iraq and Syria and for refugees in neighboring countries, such as Lebanon and Jordan, requires the collaboration of all people of good will. Furthermore, cultural, spiritual and psychological activities are encouraged, which in various ways bring people closer, despite religious and ethnic differences. The persistence of the political and social crisis in Lebanon, especially after the 2020 explosion in the port of Beirut, requires constant accompaniment, keeping track of many situations of extreme poverty. The visits of Pope Francis to Iraq, the land of Abraham, father in faith for Jews, Christians and Muslims, from 5 to 8 March 2021, and to Cyprus from 2 to 6 December 2021, were moments of grace and great encouragement for the Churches of these two countries and neighboring ones as well to spread the message of human brotherhood so necessary in these territories.

The visit of the Cardinal Prefect to Syria in the autumn of 2021 was also an opportunity to bring help and verify the development of subsequent events for the coordination of the Church's charitable works in the country.

Conclusion

Pope Francis in his message for Lent this year invites the faithful to pray to God for the "constant patience of the farmer", reminding them of the Apostle Paul's exhortation: "Let us not tire of doing good" (Gal 6:9).

May tireless prayer and the work of people of good will around the world help support families in need, children in search of a future, assistance to refugees and displaced persons, the training of priests and religious, and conservation of the Holy Places.

Summary Report of the Custody of the Holy Land on the projects and works carried out with the 2020/2021 Collection

The Custody of the Holy Land has for centuries dedicated itself to the conservation and revitalization of the Holy Places of Christianity in the Land of Jesus and in the entire Middle East. Among the various objectives of the Franciscan mission are included the sustaining and progress of the Christian minority which dwells in the mission, the conservation and valorisation of archaeological zones and sanctuaries, the interventions in cases of emergency, the liturgy of the places of cult, the apostolic works and the assistance to the pilgrims. For the two-year period 2019/2020, the Franciscan presence in the Holy Land has been characterised by the planning, programming and carrying out of the following projects and works:

1. Works in favour of pilgrims.
2. Works in favour of the local community.
3. Rhodes

4. Projects in Syria and Lebanon supported by PTS Pro Terra Sancta

5. The ordinary stipends of the Custody of the Holy Land

These works have been already carried out thanks to various kinds of economic contributions, and in the first place thanks to the Good Friday Collection, and then through fund raising activities of the Franciscan Foundation for the Holy Land (FFHL) and the association Pro Terra Sancta (PTS), but also thanks to other private and institutional donors, as well as through incomes from other activities.

At the moment of writing of this report (January 2022), here in Jerusalem, as in the rest of the world, Covid-19 is striking ever-growing numbers in the population, with grave impact on the systems of health and economy, and also on society and the life of the Church. Ever since the end of February 2020 we have found ourselves without pilgrims, and this means serious economic difficulties for the local Christian communities, for the Christian families and also for the Custody. In the meantime, we are trying to continue the mission that has been entrusted to us, knowing that Divine Providence which has willed our presence here will continue to take care of us. Many of the works listed have thus continued in a slower pace and are resulting “in phases of planning”, since we had to give priority to interventions that were mainly concerned with the effects and problems of a social nature.

Ordinary Stipends of the Custody of the Holy Land

Monthly stipends of circa 1.020 employees in Israel and Palestine divided between 15 schools (60% of the total number of workers), 4 Case Nove for pilgrims (20% of the number of workers), 80 sanctuaries, 25 parishes and many other various activities.

During the COVID pandemic the employees having residence in Israel could benefit from a form of subsidy (halat) until October 2021. The State paid this subsidy and it corresponded to 70% of their salary. The workers of the State of Palestine, instead, were totally deprived of any welfare. For this reason, the Custody chose to continue to pay half of the salary of the employees from Palestinian territories who remained at home, and obviously 100% for those who could come to work. The Custody also tried to see to it that in the works in the friaries and other restoration works, it employed in a special way those Christian workers coming from the West Bank, in order to guarantee a livelihood for their families. This choice has obviously been a burden on the Custody during a time in which the offerings coming in from the pilgrims in the sanctuaries were nil. This has been the situation since February 2020.
